Free Kashmiri Boys from the Torturing Indian Army

Please visit the campaign site, www.FreeKashmiriBoys.org, to help free the 13,000 innocent Kashmiri young men who have been abducted by the Indian military. While abducting boys, some soldiers told parents that next time they will take their girls. This is no idle threat as 11,000 Kashmiri women have been raped in Kashmir. This sends a very terrorizing message to 15 million Kashmiris who have already been under siege for almost 60 days. Those not abducted are being tortured with electric shocks right on the street, horrifying the whole neighborhood.

According to an interfaith delegation of 5 women leaders from India which went there for an investigation, about 13,000 children, some as young as 4 years old, have been abducted by the army in the last 50 days.

While kidnapping them they told the parents that, next time, their girls will be taken.

This is a message meant to terrorize the Kashmiri population. Since 1989, there have been 11,000 gang rapes of Kashmiri women at the hands of Indian security forces. There have been over 10,000 disappearances of Kashmiri civilians. Over 20,000 women have been forcibly widowed after their husbands disappeared, never hearing from them again. They are referred to as half-widows in Kashmir.

None of these individuals have been given a trial or any kind of due legal process. Those not abducted are being tortured right on the street with electric shocks. Their cries are meant to terrorize the whole neighborhood.

None of the Indian soldiers have ever been punished for their inhuman crimes against the Kashmiris.

How is this cruelty possible in the world's largest democracy? Enough is enough.
